ordered to be printed; said resolution reads as follows:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Kantucky has ever cherished and adhered to the Federal Union, and she will cling to it now in the time of its extremest peril with unfallering devolton. While, at the beginning of the med and wicked war which is being waged by the reballious States for the destruction of the Government, she forbers to take part in the hope that she might interpose her friendly offices in the interests of peace, she has nevertheless sterely repelled every movement which locked to a change of her political relations, and has never swerved from her full and fervid loyelty to the noblost and freest Government in the world. And now, since her proffered mediation has been spurned and her si il invaded by the Confederale armies, she doems it fit that she should announce to the world, that, standing tirmly her Government, she will resist every effert to destroy it, and she calls upon her true and heroic sons to rally around the standard of their country, and put forth the whole energies of the Commonwealth illi the rebellion shall be overthrown, and the just supremacy of the National Covernment, shall he reserved and mainoverthrown, and the just supremacy of the National Government shall be restored and maintained everywhers within its limits.

The Instance has already bean noted of the passage of the eteamer Pink Varble up the Cumberland river, a few days since, with a load of cotten machinery for Nashville- under a pass from Secretary Chase. The owners had associated themselves to start a cotten factory in Medianoval 1e, in biddle Tennessee, early in the season, training their machinery in Cincinnati, Frieding it detained by the blocksd, an application was made to the Secretary of the Treasury for a pess on the grounds that the owners were lovel mon, and that it would be a year before the factory would be in operation, by which time Tennessee would be in the Union. Secretary Chase only yielded under pressing importunity of Unionists of preminence in Tennessee and Kennicky, feeling the precedent to be a dangerous one—Chicago Trabune.

It is safe to say that notwithstanding the tor-por of a large share of our army and the taunts that we have thus far been "playing at war," a greater number of lives have been lost within the parl five months than during the entire wor of

We have been requested to all attention to the provisions of this very stringent act, as they seem to have been forcotton or overlooked by officers from other States who may desire to hring free colored servants with them. Unless the Legislature, at its present session, makes some exception in favor of the attendants upon officers in the service, it will ho the imperative duty of our authorities to see that the provisions of this law are rigidly enforced.

Col. Forney, in his latest "Occasional" etter from Washington, pays this high tribute to Dr. Rob. J. Breckinridge:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26, 1861. The Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge is a great man. Of the eminent mon in the Border States who have remained true to the cause of the Union, w deserve more praise than this elequent divinah are extensive. He is the uncle and guar lian of John C. Breckinridge, and bears towards bin all the tender and gealle relations of n fa-ber to a son In the advancement of his nephew r. Breckiaridge has taken a deep interest rbapa to no man dies the ex-Vice-President e as deep a deht of grutitude. In Kentucky the Breckininge family is powrful, and the leader of the Breekinridge family s the clergyman. His views on political ques ions have gone for towards controlling publi ertiment in Kentucky, and the affection the couls feel for the man, and the contidence they are in his wisdom and frankness, are unbounded You know what the position of Robert J. reckinnide has been in this crisis. You know ow steadily, how bravaly, how affectionately be

I am led to apeak thus of Dr. Breckinridge by a perusal of an article rapublished in the Louisville Journal, from the Danville Review, a theological publication, entitled "The Civil wur—its Nature and Ead." It is one of the most splendid productions of this gifted divine. Its logic is cleur, its ar_ument exhaustive, and its patriotism of the highest character. One of bis most beautiful and pretic arguments is an illustration of iful and poetic arguments is an illustration of be Union feeling which so alrongly exists in the acuntain regious of Westeru Virginie, Maryland

Kontucky, Tenessee, Alabams, and North Car-ina "The Mountain Empire, as be called it," in a bady of Mountains, all abutting on the left hank of the Ohio, which covers all Western Vir and all Easturn Kentucky, and the wid h, east to west, in these States of three or four hur miles. These monntains stretch sonthwestwar y, passing entirely through Tennessee, covering arts of North Carol na and Georgia, heavily in vading the north part of Alabama, and making a figure even in the back parts of South Carolina and the western perts of Mississippi, baving a course of perhaps seven or eight hundred miles, and running far south of the northern limit of nine elave Sates; though nearly destitute of slaves; trenching upon nearly five cotton States, though raising no cotton itself." You will see in this argument of Dr. Brockin-idge the territorial and agricultural question which bids fair to occupy an important part in he termination of this rebellion; and when we peak of the men of Eastern Tennessee and raise as lavistly their loyully end self-sacrifice, we are but speaking of a poople who occupy the seart of what Dr. Brockluridge calls "the Moun-They give us from their midst men equally as

LADIES SOLDIERS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION. An error appeared in the report of this Association as published in the Democrat of yesterday, hy which the sub-report of Mrs. Curran Pope, one of the most active and zealous and officient members of the body, was cur- Cosey, arrested at Lair's Station, on the Kentucky tailed of its just proportions. This error is corrected in the report as published in our sey, it is said, confessed having been one of the columns this morning.

Gen. Buell is greatly annoyed by persons camps on the line of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Those who make such applications are loyal men and women, and it pains the commanding general that he cannot gratify their wishes, but the necessities of the corvice require that he shall be more rigid hereafter in the observance of tha rules in relation to passes. Passes will be Issued, however, to a limited extent for persons to visit the encampments in the immediate vicin ity of the city.

MRS. MAT. PEEL'S CAMPBELL MINSTRELS,-This troupe has created n decided impression is our city, and they well deserve it. On each night the hall has been well filled. Their performances have been marked by an entire absence of vulgarity or any approximation thereto. The Ward: fair manageress, Mrs. Mat. Peel, has decided, at the solicitation of many who wera compelled hy the inclemency of the weather from attending during last week, to remain Tuesday, Wednes day, and Thursday evenings of this week. With her accustomed liberality, Mrs. Poel will give an entertainment on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Soldiors' Aid Society. By the asistance of Government wager-team, horres, and nearly all other uncless of cor-revence known to more, I seemeded in making good n journey from New Mexico to this point is id days, and strange to say, I more no delay I days, and strange to say, I move in derry in outsille, as camp life is to no far preferable to be hard dram monetony of city life.

Upon my arrival in this place, I was, by the indness of Cap'ain Nobla and Liant. McDowell for the Dupont Zonaves, shown round, and I must onfess that I felt to by proted to see so many only fellow Kentuckians enduring all the found of comparison and and as wing to become good as described on and any to become good as described. conness that I real tries print in seas so many or my fellow Kentuckishs enduring all the ferigues of camp life, and end avoring to become good and officient soldiers. If Colorel Bones succeeds in hilling up his ragiment, Kentucky will yet be proud of the gallant Colonel and the noble soldiers under his command. I speak prossionally, for, being an elf soldier myself, i think I can judge the material of which are as are made.

The cump at this place is truly beautiful, and the arrangements for the accommodation of the "wold soldier hows" are as good as could be expected. Capt. Burnus in is endeavoring to raise a company, which will belong to this regiment. Are there not some gall nt young Kentu kians who are willing to come firth and enlist to drive the invader from our soil and protect unturnished the fair fame of our old and glorious arrive State? It is to be hoped that many will come, and that this regiment may become the peer of the best. I winterested the drill of Capt.
